

TARA C TAYLOR

Tara C Taylor is a Canadian singer/songwriter, producer and musician. After 7 years in Berlin Tara has returned to Canada where she is living on the East Coast performing and working on her various music projects. Tara's songs tell stories about lust & love, politics and the many journeys in life. All with an edgy wit Tara is not your typical singer/song writer.

Tara calls her sound "Acoustic meets Dance" and considers her sound to be a mixture of post-punk/80's new wave and electronic dance. Put another way imagine if Erasure had a baby with Annie Lennox with the cool aunt being PJ Harvey and the cool uncle being New Order.

Originally from Winnipeg, Tara has also lived in Vancouver, San Francisco and spent 7 years in Berlin Germany refining her sound. Tara is an accomplished vocalist and musician on guitar, keys, drums and production tech. Over the years she has collaborated with multiple other musicians on various projects as a writer and performer. These included: Matthew Presidente (Vancouver, Canada): Genre Peak (Sacramento, California, USA) and The Liar Script (San Francisco, California, USA).

"Tara C Taylor sends a supreme shockwave through our shaking vertebrae and doesn't stop entertaining with an electric display."
